"Set thee up waymarks" Jeremiah 31:21

April 2013

PRESENTING MR. & MRS. JONATHAN HOWARD WOOD

GOD'S PLAN FOR MARRIAGE-UNCHANGED!

Jesus said: From the beginning of the creation, God made them male and female. For this reason a man shall leave behind his father and mother and be joined to his wife; and the two shall become one flesh; so then they are no longer two, but one flesh. Therefore what God has joined together, let not man separate."

Mark 10:6-10

CAUTION, AMERICA! DON'T BE DECEIVED! BELIEVE THE ONLY TRUE DEFENSE OF MARRIAGE STATEMENT. BE WISE, NOT FOOLISH!

LAUNCHING JGHM--EAST AFRICA BRANCH

As you know, our interest in East Africa started in April 2006, when I taught a class on the purpose and power of prayer at Brackenhurst Conference Center outside Nairobi. There were over one-hundred pastors in the class. One was Martin Shikuku, pastor-founder, Glory Baptist Church, Eldoret in West Kenya (Rift Valley).. We became friends during the week. He, along with Andrew Sakari and Mulumba Placide Kituta, urged me to return and teach a series of prayer seminars in west Kenya and in the Democratic Republic of the Congo in 2007.

In preparation, Martin translated the English prayer seminar workbook into Swahili. With the help of Dr. Jones Kaleli (Professor, Liberty Baptist Theological Seminary, Lynchburg VA) and his two daughters (who typed the handwritten translation prepared by Martin, the Swahili translation was completed. Martin and Andrew picked up the message and began to run with it. At that time, Martin shared his aspirations in written form. It was clear that he understood the importance of beginning his day with an extended period in the Word of God (reading systematically through the Bible following the Bible reading schedule provided for Doorkeepers in the monthly Reflector). He further understood that prayer is the work that must come before all other work. He rededicated himself to prayer work and teaching his family, congregation, and others what he was learning. He often shares how lifechanging this practice has been in his life and ministry!

On my first visit to Glory Baptist Church in 2007, he and his congregation presented me a beautiful carving, a big elephant with a little elephant attached. In the presentation, he explained that I was the "big elephant" and that he and others would be the "little

Dear Doorkeepers,

Of the fifty-eight nations that have hosted prayer seminars, perhaps the greatest impact has been in Nigeria. Our work began in 1987 with the Baptists in Imo State (Ibo tribe).

In 1988, an invitation came from Ian Hay, the international director, Sudan Interior Mission and Panya Baba, president, Evangelical Church of West Africa (ECWA) for a series of prayer seminars in their seminaries and colleges. Out of this came a great spiritual awakening. A prayer ministry was developed that has impacted thousands upon thousands. The goal was that every church would become a praying church. From 2.2 million, ECWA has grown to 5.6 million. Prayer is the work that must come before all other work.

Even then, I became aware that Islam is not a peaceable religion. The conflict rages. Once again, I ask you to pray for Nigeria. Please read carefully the prayer request from a Wycliffe missionary on page twelve.

Pray for prayer ministry leaders: Nuhu & Mercy Leo (Jos) and for Shem & Deborah Kamla (Gombe State). Since 1988, Shem has been conducting prayer seminars through northeast Nigeria where the Muslims are strongest.

Yours in Calvary love,

J. Gordon Henry

elephants,” who would follow me in providing prayer seminars throughout East Africa. It was a precious moment.

Then trouble came. I firmly believe that Satan himself understood the importance of Martin’s commitment to mobilizing and training prayer warriors and the threat that it would pose to Satanic practices. Post-election violence pitting tribe against tribe became intense after the December 2007 election. Hundreds were killed (including fifty who fled to a church for safety only to have the church burned with them inside) and multiplied thousands (250,000) became refugees with 125,000 near Martin’s church. He and his family fled to the Eldoret police station with only the clothes on their backs. Everything in his house and church were destroyed. He was left with nothing but his wonderful family and faith in God that He would rebuild his life and ministry. His father-in-law was one of the ones that was murdered.

When we learned what was happening, we began an effort to make contact with Martin. We did not know if he and his family were dead or alive. Finally, an e-mail came. They were alive, but devastated completely with no food or clothing or shelter. When I wrote a letter to our Doorkeepers that the “little elephants are in trouble,” you gave over $13,000 to help Martin rebuild and reestablish his ministry. Since then, he has traversed his nation conducting prayer seminars. He and his congregation have erected the largest Baptist auditorium in West Kenya.

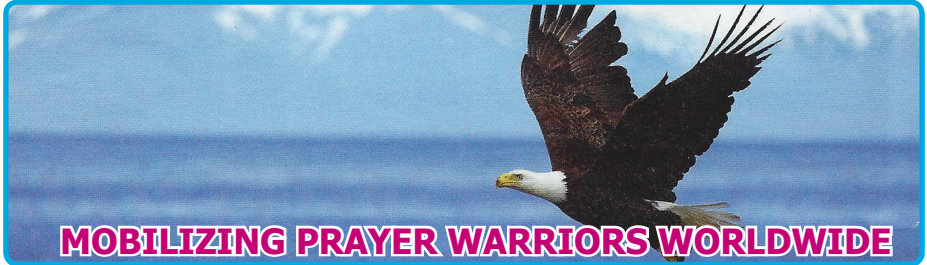

In a sense, you and I can feel that Martin belongs to us. We have provided funds for a van for Martin. He has started a preschool and a preachers’ school. He and his team have conducted many prayer seminars throughout the nation and have established many lighthouses of prayer already. He arranged prayer seminars in 2009, 2010, 2011, and 2012 (119 days total) and served as my interpreter for seminars in Burundi, DR Congo, Rwanda, Tanzania, and Uganda. In a recent e-mail, Martin concluded that the prayer seminar “will live as long as I live.”

To launch JGHM-East Africa Branch, our goal is to raise $13,000, the equivalent amount to what we gave to enable Martin to reestablish his ministry after the devastation caused by the post-election violence. Above all, we ask each of the Doorkeepers to make a commitment to provided the crucial prayer support needed for any new venture. Our model will be Nigeria. JGHM will provide funds for workbooks, for travel and food. When the leadership deems it necessary, I will be available to go. Our goal is to have thousands of lighthouses of prayer penetrating the spiritual darkness. Our aim is to challenge pastors and leaders not to rest until their local churches are lighthouses of prayer. Consequently, we are expecting great things to happen in the five East Africa nations through

Thanks, Doorkeepers, for providing Martin’s van

Intercession

Never underestimate the possibility of a reversal of God's judgment through a loving intercessor. Aaron had made the golden calf for the people to worship, and God had promised the judgment of death of him. As a result of Moses' intercession, his life was spared.

Is there a more awesome role than being an intercessor? It has happened in the Bible and numbers of times since. Take note how the early disciples prayed during the night for Peter when he was in prison. Their intercession resulted in an escape with an angelic escort. Their praying fetched an angel; the angel fetched Peter who was soon knocking on the door where the prayer meeting was in progress (Acts 12:7-12).

Prepare to pay a price in intercession when friends, family members, or leaders are in crisis situations. We are always to pray for the seemingly impossible and never to limit God's ability or minimize the effectiveness of our partnership with Him in prayer.

John Newton's example

Interesting reading! Various social laws were laid out for the Israelites to be practiced when they were settled in the Promised Land (Deuteronomy 24:5 25:4). Justice was to be shown to the stranger, the fatherless, and the widow. A field was not to be completely harvested. Gleanings were to be left for the poor and the helpless. The same applied to the harvesting of olive trees and grapes. Ronald Sider comments:

The memory of their own poverty and oppression in Egypt was to prompt them to leave generous gleanings for the poor sojourner; the widow and the fatherless

When John Newton (author of "Amazing Grace") was born again, he printed verse 22 in large letters and hung it over his mantelpiece, where he would be constantly reminded of it: "And you shall remember that you were a slave in the land of Egypt; therefore I command you to do this thing."

The Matter of Other faiths

Purposeful inquiry into other religions, both ancient and contemporary, for the purpose of ascertaining the truth about them, cannot be considered wrong. But we need warning against exposing ourselves, and others, to the subtle influences of false faiths by contacts that have no better reason than undisciplined curiosity. Christian courtesy toward persons of all faiths, but none should lead to a tolerance that fails to recognize the difference between truth and error.

HIS MANDATE TO JGHM:

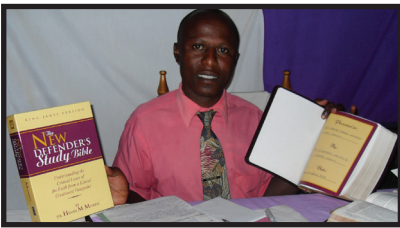

"For the Lord has commanded us saying, I have set you up to be a LIGHT TO THE NATIONS, so that you may bring salvation to the ends of the earth."

(Acts 13:47 NRSV)

Sue Henry & Selena--Good Friends

Selena Cao

Through Doorkeeper Dr. Robert George, we were introduced to Ninghao Selena Cao. He and his wife, Sara, have an intense interest in China, especially Sias University (Xinzheng, Henan Province). When Selena graduated from Sias, she came to Lynchburg in early 2008 to work on a master's degree at Liberty University. Soon she felt like a member of our family. Her help to JGHM has been invaluable. She not only developed our website [www.jgordonhenryministries.org], she spent hours cataloguing our library with the Dewey Decimal System of classification. She earned her master's and was employed at LU. Her commitment to the Lord Jesus Christ is exemplary. She is in the doctoral program at Liberty. Now she is Mrs. Jonathan Howard Wood, a graduate of Bob Jones University, His testimony for the Lord Jesus Christ matches Selena's. It is a thrill to be in their presence. Dr. Henry performed their wedding ceremony on December 20, 2012 and officiated at their Marriage Celebration ceremony at Snidow Chapel, Lynchburg College, on March 15, 2013, with both sets of parents present, along with other family members and friends. A third ceremony is scheduled for China in May. We send Jonathan and Selena forth firmly believing that they will be instruments in the hands of the Lord to bring countless folks to the Lord. Please pray for them.

sowing and reaping

We praise God for the opportunities that He has presented JGHM to touch lives at home and abroad — all possible because of the faithful prayer and financial support provided by our Doorkeepers. The story of Young Min Pee, Th.D. illustrates what I am talking about.

Young Min Pee served as our interpreter for South Korean prayer seminars in May 1986. With his help, Sue and I saw 106 adults from Buddhist backgrounds trust the Lord Jesus Christ as their Savior, mostly in home visitation. Each witnessing session took around one hour and our brother faithfully took what was in our hearts and minds, and placed it in the hearts of those to whom we witnessed.

The Word of God came alive. Great conviction fell and the Holy Spirit moved mightily to exalt the Lord Jesus Christ as the only Savior provided by the only true God. On Saturday afternoon, Young Min Pee returned to his home community, Daejon, and using the method of witnessing (that is a part of our present evangelism clinic) won four men to Christ. When Sue and I heard what had happened, we rejoiced with him knowing that he was to be a very special instrument in God's hand.

When we learned that Young Min Pee's dream was to earn a doctorate in the U. S. and return to Korea to teach in the Baptist seminary, we were eager to see it happen. The difficulty was that he was being refused a student visa. Before we flew to Japan for seminars on Saturday, I went to the U. S. Embassy in Seoul to find out why his student visa was being denied and was assured there was no way that I could have an audience with the embassy agent in charge (a lady from Texas). I insisted and persisted as other supplicants (perhaps a hundred) were heard. Most walked away downcast. Finally, I was called to the bullet-proof window. After some time, I went away with a step-by-step list, which I mailed to Young Min Pee from the airport. Within a month, he had his visa. When he arrived to study at New Orleans Baptist Theological Seminary, JGHM supported him $100 monthly until he was called to become pastor at the Korean Baptist Church, in Baton Rouge, Louisiana.

Young Min Pee, his wife, and his son, returned to Korea. He became an assistant professor of church history at the seminary. Over the years, he moved upward in his career—"Distinguished Professor of Church History" and the "Academic Dean" for the college. Then he became Vice President for Academic Affairs for the seminary in Daejon, South Korea. A few years ago, he accepted the pastorate of the 8,000 member Central Baptist Church in Seoul where he is ministering with excellence.

Dear Dr. J. Gordon Henry;

I am so glad to let you know that I attended the graduation ceremony, held on May 17, 1991 in New Orleans Baptist Theological Seminary. It was one of my greatest honor to receive Th.D. degree. I went back to Korea on March 11 and began to teach 17 hours a week in the Korea Baptist Theological Seminary. I enjoy teaching and my students love me very much.

-- Your help and guidance have always encouraged me greatly during my study in New Orleans. I can not forget your hastily-written letter from Kimpo airport that you sent me five years ago. I thank you and door-keepers who helped me and prayed for me. My wife and my son join in sending our best thanks to you and door-keepers.

I am going back to Korea shortly to continue to teach. I am willing to help you, when you come to Korea. I am looking forward to seeing you in Korea. Give my best regards to Sue and your grand-children.

Yours in Christ,
Young Min Pee

Urgent Cry for Help from Nigeria

A Wycliffe translator recently wrote from Jos: "Please intercede for Christians in Nigeria because of suicide bombings on churches! The last one was four blocks from our house. This is the moment we need your prayers the most." See comments from Dr. Henry on page two.

May I Always

May I always walk with you, Lord, ever only at Your side.
You are faithful in Your blessings; for my needs you will provide.
Never have you failed a promise found within Your holy Word;
Therefore, I can lean upon You, knowing that my prayer is heard.

May I always show your kindness in the path I walk today.
Many are that need forgiveness; speak through me along the way.
Telling of Your Son from glory, sent to earth from heaven above.
Bless the words I speak to others as I tell of Your great love.

May I always love the sinners as Your love was given to me,
Pointing them to grace in Jesus through redemption full and free.
Oh, the glories of salvation, knowing sins are washed away!
I will praise Your name forever for the price that You did pay.

May I always give to You, Lord, all my soul and mind and heart.
May I never hold back any, but to you give every part.
Your Son's life was given to save me with His blood on Calvary;
Greater love has no one given that the love You gave to me.
